COACH | THOUGHT LEADER | EXECUTIVE | STRATEGIST

Tiffany Hollin Wright is President and CEO of Hollin Wright Enterprises (HWE), a coaching and consulting firm, specializing in social, community, and economic development. Her firm provides business integration services to public, private, and nonprofit sectors. She uses multidisciplinary approaches to engage leaders and their teams in the assessment, development, and management of initiatives that support entrepreneurship, community, health, wealth, and workforce in marginalized communities. Tiffany currently provides technical assistance and project management support to the U.S. Department of the Treasury's State Small Business Credit Initiative. She leads the program's federal inter-agency conferences across the nation. Prior to establishing HWE, she served as Community Development Regional Manager and a Project Specialist for Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion with the Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond, a Senior Bank Examiner with the Atlanta Federal Reserve Bank, and a Vice President and Community and Economic Development Manager for Fifth Third Bank Georgia. She holds a Certificate in Economic Development from the University of Georgia and has a Masters of Public Health from New York University, a Master of Science in Social Administration from Case Western Reserve University, and is pending a Master of Arts in Managerial Economics and Graduate Certificate in Project Management from Virginia State University.

25+ years of executive leadership and nonprofit administration

At VSU she serves as a graduate assistant on projects including economics undergraduate and graduate student recruitment, retention, graduation, and workforce readiness and the impact of farmers markets on healthy food access in underserved communities. Tiffany graduated Summa Cum Laude with a Bachelors of Science in Biochemistry from Xavier University of Louisiana. A Georgia native, she now lives in Central Virginia and is the proud mother of three gifted adult children and two precious dogs.
